Dear Room 105 Families,

It's good to finally get another newsletter out on a Friday! In reading, we are doing a book club and studying the genre of survival/adventure books. Please note that your student has been assigned chapters to read in their book daily. I have included a copy of the calendar with this newsletter. In writing, we will begin to write literary essays. We hope to finish these units before mid-winter break. In science, we will begin to study astronomy. Please remember that students and safety should be dressed for the ever changing weather. It is also recommended that they keep a sweater or hoodie at school to deal with the occasional shifts in school temperature. Visit our class is now on Twitter, @misterprovost Feel free to contact me if you have questions or concerns.

Here is what we did this week:

- Social Studies – Maps/Movement/Recycling
