Dear Room 105 Families,

It has been a productive week. The class continued to build their knowledge about fractions and the Constitution. In reading and writing, students worked to elevate the quality and complexity of their knowledge and ability to write informational text. A special kudos goes out to our 4 "Steel Trap Minds" that achieved a perfect score on the end of Mod 3 math assessment. Many other students were very close to being in that group. Great job! I am looking forward to seeing everyone at conferences next week. Please let me know if you have any questions or concerns.

Here is what we did this week:

- Social Studies – Constitution
- Reading – Information Reading
- Writing – Informational Writing
- Math – Fractions to Decimals
- Word Study- List 11 Assigned

Here is what we are doing next week:

- Social Studies – Constitution Review and Quiz
- Reading – Information Reading
- Writing – Informational Writing – Research and Drafting
- Math – Fractions to Decimals
- Word Study- List 11 Test, List 12 assigned
